Alexandra C. McCormack is an associate at Ruskin Moscou Faltishek, P.C., where she is a member of the Corporate & Securities Department, Cannabis Law, White Collar Crime & Investigations, Veterinary Law and Blockchain Technology and Digital Asset Practice Groups. Alexandra's practice concentrates on general corporate representation where she advises public and private clients on a broad range of corporate, securities and real estate matters, including mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, contracts, and SEC filings. She has also drafted a variety of license, operating, employment, management services, and other commercial agreements.

Alexandra received her Juris Doctor from the Maurice A. Deane School of Law at Hofstra University. Alexandra served as a Staff Member on Volume 48 of the Hofstra Law Review and as the Senior Notes Editor on Volume 49 of the Hofstra Law Review. Her Note, Cadavers in Commerce: Regulating Under a Federal Body of Laws (2020), was published in Volume 48.4.

Upon graduation, Alexandra received the Gold Award for Public Service, which is awarded to graduates who devoted 750+ hours to public service during their three years at Hofstra Law, and the Alan N. Resnick Award of Fellowship and Unity from the Hofstra Law Review.

Prior to joining Ruskin Moscou Faltishek, P.C., Alexandra served as a Judicial Intern for the Honorable Arthur M. Diamond in the Nassau County Supreme Court.

Alexandra prides herself on being an involved member of her local community and has proudly served as a longtime volunteer at Oak Neck Athletic Council, a non-profit that provides athletic opportunities to children in the community.

Alexandra is also a member of the Marty Lyons Foundation's Young Professionals Committee, a committee comprised of a diverse group of dedicated individuals who volunteer their time, talents, and energy to give back to the worthy mission of the Marty Lyons Foundation, and a member of the Nassau County Women's Bar Foundation, and the Nassau County Bar Association WeCare Fund.

Alexandra is included in the 2025 edition of the Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch™ in America for her work in Corporate Law.
