

BRITTANY L. ADIKES / ASSOCIATE

BADIKES@RMFPC.COM

O: 516.663.6535 F: 516.663.6735

EDUCATION

- St. John's University School of Law (J.D., accelerated program, 2017)
- St. John's University (B.S., 2015)

PRACTICE AREAS

- Commercial Litigation
- Cannabis Law

Brittany L. Adikes is an Associate at Ruskin Moscou Faltischek, P.C., where she is a member of the firm's Commercial Litigation Department and Cannabis Law Practice Group. Brittany focuses her practice on complex commercial and civil litigation matters.

Prior to joining RMF, Brittany was a member of the Cannabis Practice Group at a nationwide law firm, assisting businesses and individuals in the hemp and marijuana industries on litigation, regulatory, and corporate matters across multiple states. Brittany's experience includes matters such as contract disputes, partnership disputes, trademark and IP infringement, licensing, regulatory compliance, construction related matters, general/professional liability defense, and catastrophic injuries.

Brittany received her J.D. from St. John's University School of Law through the advanced combined degree program, during which time she served as a law clerk for the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the Federal Aviation Administration.

Brittany is admitted to practice law in the courts of New York State and Oregon State, as well as the U.S. District Court for the District of Oregon, the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Oregon, and the United States District Courts for the Southern District of New York and the Eastern District of New York.

Publications

- The Latest Hurdle for New York Cannabis: Injunction Prohibits Review of Provisional Retail Applications (Alerts, Cannabis)
- Ruskin Moscou Faltischek, P.C. Welcomes New Brittany L. Adikes To The Firm (Press Releases).

Speaking Engagements

- Panelist, Oregon State Bar Cannabis and Psychedelics Law Section Annual Conference, “Hemp-Derived Cannabinoids: A Regulatory Maze” (September 28, 2024).